Focusing on the three Fs – Fabric, Fit, and Finish. They're the most important factors for making jeans.

To UNIQLO, denim is more than just a fabric. It's a material that's loaded with history, and we respect it accordingly.

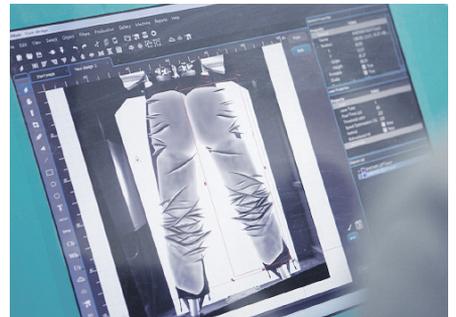

// FABRIC

The JEANS INNOVATION CENTER's location in Los Angeles, home to global denim fabric makers, provides a structure for optimal fabric development and selection. UNIQLO also has a solid partnership with KAIHARA Corporation, a well-known maker of high-quality Japanese denim.

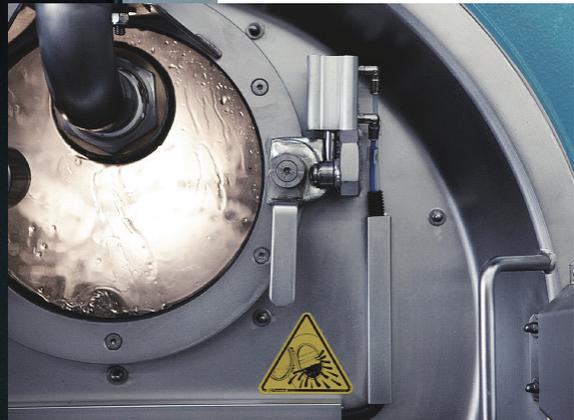

// FIT

The JEANS INNOVATION CENTER researches and develops denim in a joint effort between UNIQLO, which makes clothes from a LifeWear perspective, and our sister brand, J BRAND, which creates jeans that drive trends.

// FINISH

Washing is the most important process affecting the finished look and quality of jeans. The JEANS INNOVATION CENTER is equipped with the world's most advanced denim-processing technologies. The center has also gathered together specialists in denim development from around the world, who repeatedly conduct tests to create authentic jeans on par with premium denim.

Choose from 3 levels of warmth

| | | |
|---|---|--|
|---|---|--|

*Calculated based on the CLO value that measures heat resistance. Compare to regular HEATTECH. HEATTECH Extra Warm and HEATTECH Ultra Warm launch in September.

Absorbs and wicks away moisture to keep you dry.

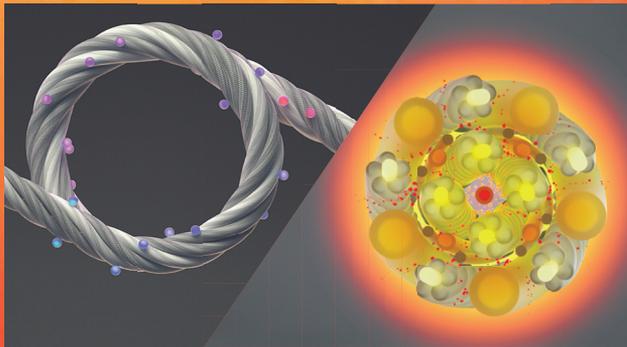

In addition to generating heat that keeps you warm, HEATTECH absorbs and diffuses moisture. Among the combination of different fibers is a heavy dose of highly moisture-absorbing strands to keep the insides of your clothes drier indoors, on the train, and everywhere else.

*Functions vary depending on the product. Please check the back side of the product package for details.

Clothing that generates heat from your body.

HEATTECH converts moisture into warmth when you need it most. Even during drastic temperature changes, this lightweight layer will keep you moving comfortably all day long.

The special fiber takes water vapor emitted from your body and converts it into heat.

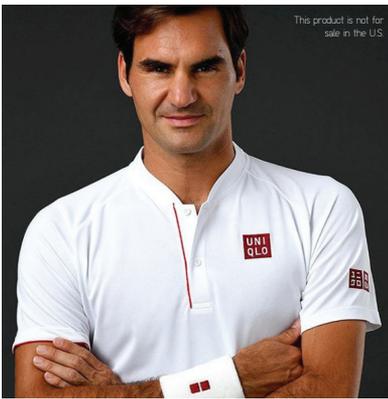

A micro-acrylic air pocket in the mesh traps and retains warmth.

A T-Shirt is a direct expression of the wearer's individuality and values. You can convey your identity – who you are, where you come from, and what kind of culture you like – through what's on your T-Shirt. A T-Shirt is, so to speak, a tool of self-expression. That's exactly why UT carefully selects authentic cultural content that transcends time and genre from around the world such as art from up-and-coming artists, comic book characters, and traditional brands. By using our unique editing perspective to create new content and maximize its appeal, we offer the world T-Shirts that possess genuine value.

In November 2016, Fast Retailing opened the Jeans Innovation Center as a denim research and development facility in Los Angeles. The center creates designs with an emphasis on quality, the pursuit of safe and efficient operations and the reduction of environmental impact during the manufacturing process. An example of one of its innovations is the production of pre-faded and pre-ripped jeans. By adopting a laser process and other leading technologies, the Jeans Innovation Center aims to shorten manual processes and greatly reduce chemicals, water and waste.

UNIQLO is a proud Member of the Better Cotton Initiative (BCI). BCI exists to make global cotton production better for the people who produce it, better for the environment it grows in and better for the sector's future.
